This Default Judgment Order constitutes the final "default judgment" for the above-listed plaintiffs' claims to be served on defendants pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e); therefore the Clerk does not need to issue individual judgments for each plaintiff because this Order shall constitute the "final judgment" for each plaintiff; and it is further ORDERED that, because plaintiffs have repeatedly attempted, without success, to serve defendants under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), [Dkt. Nos. 10-12], plaintiffs may proceed to serve this Default Judgment Order immediately under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4).

Any party seeking to appeal this Default Judgment Order must file a written notice of appeal with the Clerk of the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of this Default Judgment Order. A notice of appeal is a short statement indicating a desire to appeal, including the date of the order being appealed. The grounds for appeal do not need to be included until so directed by the court of appeals. Failure to file a timely notice of appeal waives the right to appeal this Default Judgment Order.

The Clerk is directed to enter judgment in favor of plaintiffs pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b), forward copies of this Order and accompanying Memorandum Opinion to counsel of record, and to the defendants, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), and close this civil action.

Entered this 8th day of September, 2026.
